NEWS AND VIEWS

July, 2008

Jack Talk

Dear Friends,

Through the Jacksonville Public Schools Foundation caring Alumni and Friends of Education have enhanced District #117 public schools in the amount of $1,404,854.75.

They have provided LCD projectors and wireless computer labs. They have established a vocational technology lab in the high school, new drums for the JHS band and provided money to help the band attend the international conference. They have helped to provide lights for the football field. Provided the lights for the tennis courts. Provided money to help buy bleachers at the football field. Enhanced the chemistry department with supplies and equipment. The Foundation recently received a generous anonymous gift of $100,000 for Promethan Boards and related equipment for the elementary schools. The Foundation sponsors the Bill Russell monetary award, the Bill Fortschneider Award, the Rusty Vernor Award and the mini-grants for teachers.

We are most appreciative and all we can say is:

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Jack Mathews
Executive Director
